

SPRING TRIVIA

- ___ 1. What date typically marks the first day of spring in the Northern Hemisphere?
- ___ 2. Which famous festival, celebrated in India, marks the arrival of spring with colors and music?
- ___ 3. What natural phenomenon occurs during the spring and fall equinoxes?
- ___ 4. In Japan, the blossoming of which tree is celebrated as a symbol of the spring season?
- ___ 5. What is the name of the process by which plants and flowers begin to grow and bloom in spring?
- ___ 6. Which migratory bird is commonly known to return to its breeding grounds during the spring season in the Northern Hemisphere?
- ___ 7. In many countries, the change to Daylight Saving Time happens in the spring. What is the phrase used to remember how clocks are changed?
- ___ 8. Which holiday, significant in the Christian faith, is celebrated on the first Sunday after the first full moon following the spring equinox?
- ___ 9. What is the term for when the axis of the Earth increases its tilt toward the Sun during spring, leading to warmer temperatures and longer days?
- ___ 10. Spring fever refers to a specific phenomenon experienced by many people as the season changes. What is it characterized by?
- ___ 11. Which famous European city is known for its spectacular springtime tulip festival?
- ___ 12. In Washington D.C., the National Cherry Blossom Festival celebrates the gift of cherry blossom trees from which country?
- ___ 13. Which common spring flower is known as a symbol of rebirth and new beginnings?
- ___ 14. Which vitamin does the human body produce more efficiently in spring due to increased exposure to sunlight?
- ___ 15. In spring, this natural event occurs in deciduous forests, where trees grow new leaves after being bare in winter. What is it called?
- ___ 16. What is the term for the direction birds migrate to in the springtime in the Northern Hemisphere?
- ___ 17. What phenomenon are bees particularly busy with in spring, which is crucial for the pollination of plants and flowers?
- ___ 18. During spring, this astronomical event occurs, allowing for almost equal day and night lengths worldwide. What is this event called?
- ___ 19. What phenomenon causes the snow to melt in the mountainous regions during spring, potentially leading to floods in rivers downstream?
- ___ 20. Which flying insect, known for its transformation, starts to appear in spring?

- A. Axial tilt of the Earth towards the Sun
- B. Day and night are approximately equal
- C. Easter
- D. Snowmelt runoff
- E. Increased energy and vitality
- F. Equinox
- G. Butterfly
- H. Swallow
- I. Japan
- J. Northward
- K. Cherry blossoms
- L. Spring green
- M. Spring forward, fall back
- N. Germination
- O. Vitamin D
- P. Pollen collection and transfer
- Q. Amsterdam
- R. Daffodil
- S. March 20 or 21
- T. Holi

SPRING TRIVIA

ANSWER KEY

- S 1. What date typically marks the first day of spring in the Northern Hemisphere?
- T 2. Which famous festival, celebrated in India, marks the arrival of spring with colors and music?
- B 3. What natural phenomenon occurs during the spring and fall equinoxes?
- K 4. In Japan, the blossoming of which tree is celebrated as a symbol of the spring season?
- N 5. What is the name of the process by which plants and flowers begin to grow and bloom in spring?
- H 6. Which migratory bird is commonly known to return to its breeding grounds during the spring season in the Northern Hemisphere?
- M 7. In many countries, the change to Daylight Saving Time happens in the spring. What is the phrase used to remember how clocks are changed?
- C 8. Which holiday, significant in the Christian faith, is celebrated on the first Sunday after the first full moon following the spring equinox?
- A 9. What is the term for when the axis of the Earth increases its tilt toward the Sun during spring, leading to warmer temperatures and longer days?
- E 10. Spring fever refers to a specific phenomenon experienced by many people as the season changes. What is it characterized by?
- Q 11. Which famous European city is known for its spectacular springtime tulip festival?
- I 12. In Washington D.C., the National Cherry Blossom Festival celebrates the gift of cherry blossom trees from which country?
- R 13. Which common spring flower is known as a symbol of rebirth and new beginnings?
- O 14. Which vitamin does the human body produce more efficiently in spring due to increased exposure to sunlight?
- L 15. In spring, this natural event occurs in deciduous forests, where trees grow new leaves after being bare in winter. What is it called?
- J 16. What is the term for the direction birds migrate to in the springtime in the Northern Hemisphere?
- P 17. What phenomenon are bees particularly busy with in spring, which is crucial for the pollination of plants and flowers?
- F 18. During spring, this astronomical event occurs, allowing for almost equal day and night lengths worldwide. What is this event called?
- D 19. What phenomenon causes the snow to melt in the mountainous regions during spring, potentially leading to floods in rivers downstream?
- G 20. Which flying insect, known for its transformation, starts to appear in spring?

- A. Axial tilt of the Earth towards the Sun
- B. Day and night are approximately equal
- C. Easter
- D. Snowmelt runoff
- E. Increased energy and vitality
- F. Equinox
- G. Butterfly
- H. Swallow
- I. Japan
- J. Northward
- K. Cherry blossoms
- L. Spring green
- M. Spring forward, fall back
- N. Germination
- O. Vitamin D
- P. Pollen collection and transfer
- Q. Amsterdam
- R. Daffodil
- S. March 20 or 21
- T. Holi

